Who are our Members?

We have some 70 members in membership across the UK, all connected by their involvement in weed, pest & disease management. There is a huge wealth of knowledge sitting within our Member network and we're proud to bring together a broad range of organisations from across this very diverse and important sector. Members are expected to fully support by their actions and deeds, matching the Forum's primary objective of promoting and encouraging an integrated approach to the management of pests, weeds and diseases.
